Vision for Staff Senate
Maggie Stein

Communicating with Constituents
Amy Muldoon

Introduction to Collab and Website
Amy Muldoon
Executive Committee’s Vision for Staff Senate

• Establish the Staff Senate as a resource that university administration consult when developing university programs and policies that impact staff.

• Encourage Staff Senate efforts to be collaborative and inclusive, to recognize and harness the individual talents of all staff, and to broaden staff influence to accomplish positive change at UVa.

• Foster a Staff Senate that is focused on achieving tangible results that aim to improve the working lives of staff at UVa, and as a result, promotes a sense of pride in the work of the Staff Senate.
Communicating with Constituents

When and What to Communicate

• Every month senators are expected to send an email with a summary of the Staff Senate meeting and a link to website where staff can view the full version of the minutes.

• Occasionally, solicit feedback, concerns, questions from constituents regarding issues that are important to staff (not just an individual), which you can share during our Open Floor time or with the Advocacy Committee.

• In September, send a letter of introduction along with the September meeting minutes. This is true for all senators, not just newly elected senators.
  • A sample letter is in Collab > Resources > Welcome Packet > “StaffSenateIntroLetter_SendinSept” (we can email this)

• In March (ish), senators should send an email announcing elections for the Staff Senate, asking for nominations (if there is a vacancy in your area), and explaining the election process.
Communicating with Constituents

Methods for Communicating

- Via email
- At departmental or internal employee councils
- On centralized bulletin boards
- At a meet and greet luncheon or gathering

Logistics

- Email distribution lists. Sign up if you need a distribution list.
- Sympa email lists: directions in Collab
- If you have more than one senator in your area, determine how you will communicate:
  - Will you divide the distribution list?
  - Will you alternate who sends the monthly email?
Collab

Introduction

• Collab Training: Sign up if you would like training in how to use Collab

• All official Staff Senate documents must be stored in the Staff Senate Collab site.

• You should all have access to the Collab site, but if you don’t, please email the Communication Committee at staffsen-communication@virginia.edu
